A foreign corporate trustee is required to qualify as a foreign corporation doing business in this State if it maintains the principal place of administration of any trust within the State. A foreign cotrustee is not required to qualify in this State solely because its cotrustee maintains the principal place of administration in this State. (a). In the administration of any trust which is a "private foundation" as defined in section 509 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, a "charitable trust" as defined in section 4947 (a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or a "split-interest trust" as defined in section 4947 (a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, the following acts shall be prohibited:

- (1). Engaging in any act of "self-dealing" as defined in section 4941 (d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by section 4941 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954; [1979, c. 540, §1 (NEW).]
- (2). Retaining any "excess business holdings" as defined in section 4943 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by section 4943 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954; [1979, c. 540, §1 (NEW).]

[1979, c. 540, §1 (NEW) .]

(c). [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(l). "Terms of a trust" means the manifestation of the intent of a settlor or decedent with respect to the trust, expressed in a manner that admits of its proof in a judicial proceeding, whether by written or spoken words or by conduct.

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(m). "Trustee" includes an original, additional or successor trustee, whether or not appointed or confirmed by a court.

§7-703. FIDUCIARY DUTIES; GENERAL PRINCIPLES

(a). In allocating receipts and disbursements to or between principal and income and with respect to any matter within the scope of subparts 2 and 3, a fiduciary:

(1). Shall administer a trust or estate in accordance with the terms of the trust or the will, even if there is a different provision in this Part; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(2). May administer a trust or estate by the exercise of a discretionary power of administration given to the fiduciary by the terms of the trust or the will, even if the exercise of the power produces a result different from a result required or permitted by this Part; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(3). Shall administer a trust or estate in accordance with this Part if the terms of the trust or the will do not contain a different provision or do not give the fiduciary a discretionary power of administration; and [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(4). Shall add a receipt or charge a disbursement to principal to the extent that the terms of the trust and this Part do not provide a rule for allocating the receipt or disbursement to or between principal and income. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(b). In exercising the power to adjust under section 7-704, subsection (a) or a discretionary power of administration regarding a matter within the scope of this Part, whether granted by the terms of a trust, a will or this Part, a fiduciary shall administer a trust or estate impartially, based on what is fair and reasonable to all of the beneficiaries, except to the extent that the terms of the trust or the will clearly manifest an intention that the fiduciary shall or may favor one or more of the beneficiaries. A determination in accordance with this Part is presumed to be fair and reasonable to all of the beneficiaries.

2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .

§7-704. TRUSTEE'S POWER TO ADJUST

(a). A trustee may adjust between principal and income by allocating an amount of income to principal or an amount of principal to income to the extent the trustee considers appropriate if the terms of the trust describe the amount that may or must be distributed to a beneficiary by referring to the trust's income and the trustee determines, after applying the rules in section 7-703, subsection (a), that the trustee is unable to comply with section 7-703, subsection (b).

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(b). In deciding whether and to what extent to exercise the power conferred by subsection (a), a trustee shall consider all factors relevant to the trust and its beneficiaries, including the following factors to the extent they are relevant:

- (1). The nature, purpose and expected duration of the trust; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]
- (2). The intent of the settlor; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]
- (3). The identity and circumstances of the beneficiaries and, to the extent reasonably known to the trustee, the needs of the beneficiaries for present and future distributions authorized or required by the terms of the trust; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]
- (4). The needs for liquidity, regularity of income and preservation and appreciation of capital; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]
- (5). The assets held in the trust; the extent to which they consist of financial assets, interests in closely held enterprises, tangible and intangible personal property or real property; the extent to which an asset is used by a beneficiary; and whether an asset was purchased by the trustee or received from the settlor; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]
- (6). The net amount allocated to income under the other sections of this Part and the increase or decrease in the value of the principal assets, which the trustee may estimate as to assets for which market values are not readily available; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]
- (7). Whether and to what extent the terms of the trust give the trustee the power to invade principal or accumulate income or prohibit the trustee from invading principal or accumulating income, and the extent to which the trustee has exercised a power from time to time to invade principal or accumulate income; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]
- (8). The actual and anticipated effect of economic conditions on principal and income and effects of inflation and deflation; and [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]
- (9). The anticipated tax consequences of an adjustment. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(c). A trustee may not make an adjustment under this section if any of the following applies:

- (1). The adjustment would diminish the income interest in a trust that requires all of the income to be paid at least annually to a spouse and for which an estate tax or gift tax marital deduction would be allowed, in whole or in part, if the trustee did not have the power to make the adjustment; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]
- (2). The adjustment would reduce the actuarial value of the income interest in a trust to which a person transfers property with the intent to qualify for a gift tax exclusion; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]
- (3). The adjustment would change the amount payable to a beneficiary as a fixed annuity or a fixed fraction of the value of the trust assets; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(4). The adjustment is from any amount that is permanently set aside for charitable purposes under a will or the terms of a trust unless both income and principal are so set aside; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(5). The trustee's possession or exercise of the power to make an adjustment would cause an individual to be treated as the owner of all or part of the trust for income tax purposes and the individual would not be treated as the owner if the trustee did not possess the power to make an adjustment; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(6). The trustee's possession or exercise of the power to make an adjustment would cause all or part of the trust assets to be included for estate tax purposes in the estate of an individual who has the power to remove a trustee or appoint a trustee, or both, and the assets would not be included in the estate of the individual if the trustee did not possess the power to make an adjustment; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(7). The trustee is a beneficiary of the trust; or [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(8). The trust has been converted to a unitrust under section 7-705. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(d). If subsection (c), paragraph (5), (6) or (7) applies to a trustee and there is more than one trustee, a cotrustee to whom the provision does not apply may make the adjustment unless the exercise of the power by the remaining trustee or trustees is prohibited by the terms of the trust. Terms of the trust requiring that if there are 2 or more trustees serving they must act by agreement or by any majority or percentage consensus may not be construed to prohibit the remaining trustee or trustees from possessing or exercising the power to make the adjustment.

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(e). A trustee may release the entire power conferred by subsection (a) or may release only the power to adjust from income to principal or the power to adjust from principal to income, if the trustee is uncertain about whether possessing or exercising the power will cause a result described in subsection (c), paragraphs (1) to (6) or if the trustee determines that possessing or exercising the power will or may deprive the trust of a tax benefit or impose a tax burden not described in subsection (c). The release of the power to adjust may be permanent or for a specified period, including a period measured by the life of an individual.

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(f). Terms of a trust that limit the power of a trustee to make an adjustment between principal and income do not affect the application of this section unless it is clear from the terms of the trust that the terms are intended to deny the trustee the power of adjustment conferred by subsection (a).

SECTION HISTORY

2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .

§7-705. POWER TO CONVERT TO UNITRUST

(a). Unless expressly prohibited by the terms of the trust, a trustee may release the power to adjust under section 7-704 and convert a trust into a unitrust as described in this section if all of the following apply.

(1). The trustee determines that the conversion will improve the ability of the trustee to carry out the intent of the settlor and the purposes of the trust. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(2). The trustee gives written notice of the trustee's intention to release the power to adjust and to convert the trust into a unitrust and of how the unitrust will operate, including what initial decisions the trustee will make under this section, to the following beneficiaries:

- (i) All beneficiaries who are currently eligible to receive income from the trust; and
- (ii) All beneficiaries who would receive, if no power of appointment were exercised, a distribution of principal if the trust were to terminate immediately prior to the giving of notice. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(3). There is at least one beneficiary eligible to receive income and at least one beneficiary who would receive principal as described in paragraph (2). [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(4). No beneficiary objects to the conversion to a unitrust in a writing delivered to the trustee within 60 days of the mailing of the notice required under paragraph (2). [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(b). If a beneficiary timely objects to the conversion to a unitrust or if the requirements of subsection (a), paragraph (3) are not met, the trustee may petition the court to approve the conversion to a unitrust. A beneficiary may request a trustee to convert to a unitrust and, if the trustee does not convert, the beneficiary may petition the court to order the conversion. Upon receipt of a petition by the trustee or a beneficiary, the court shall approve the conversion or direct the requested conversion if the court concludes that the conversion will better enable the trustee to carry out the intent of the settlor and the purposes of the trust.

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(c). In deciding whether to exercise the power conferred by subsection (a), a trustee shall consider the following factors to the extent they are relevant:

- (1). The nature, purpose and expected duration of the trust; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]
- (2). The identity and circumstances of the beneficiaries and, to the extent reasonably known to the trustee, the needs of the beneficiaries for present and future distributions authorized or required by the terms of the trust; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]
- (3). The needs for liquidity, regularity of income and preservation and appreciation of capital; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]
- (4). The assets held in the trust; the extent to which they consist of financial assets, interests in closely held enterprises, tangible and intangible personal property or real property; and the extent to which an asset is used by a beneficiary; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]
- (5). Whether and to what extent the terms of the trust give the trustee the power to invade principal or accumulate income or prohibit the trustee from invading principal or accumulating income, and the extent to which the trustee has exercised a power from time to time to invade principal or accumulate income; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]
- (6). The actual and anticipated effect of economic conditions on principal and income and effects of inflation and deflation; and [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]
- (7). The anticipated tax consequences of the conversion. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(d). After a trust is converted to a unitrust, all of the following apply.

- (1). The trustee shall follow an investment policy seeking a total return for the investments held by the trust, whether the return is to be derived from appreciation of capital, from earnings and distributions from capital or from both. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(2). The trustee shall make regular distributions in accordance with the terms of the trust construed in accordance with the provisions of this section. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW).]

(3). The term "income" in the terms of the trust means an annual distribution, known as the "unitrust distribution," equal to 4%, known as the "payout percentage," of the net fair market value of the trust's assets, whether such assets would be considered income or principal under other provisions of this Part, averaged over the lesser of the 3 preceding years or the period during which the trust has been in existence. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW).]

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(e). The trustee may in the trustee's discretion from time to time determine all of the following:

(1). The effective date of a conversion to a unitrust; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW).]

(2). The provisions for prorating a unitrust distribution for a short year in which a beneficiary's right to payment commences or ceases; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW).]

(3). The frequency of unitrust distributions during the year; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW).]

(4). The effect of other payments from or contributions to the trust on the trust's valuation; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW).]

(5). Whether to value the trust's assets annually or more frequently; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW).]

(6). What valuation dates to use; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW).]

(7). How frequently to value nonliquid assets and whether to estimate their value; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW).]

(8). Whether to omit from the calculation of the unitrust distribution trust property occupied or possessed by a beneficiary; and [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW).]

(9). Any other matters necessary for the proper functioning of the unitrust. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW).]

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(f). After a trust is converted to a unitrust, the following allocation rules apply to the trust.

(1). Expenses that would be deducted from income if the trust were not a unitrust may not be deducted from the unitrust distribution. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW).]

(2). Unless otherwise provided by the terms of the trust, the unitrust distribution must be paid from net income, as net income would be determined if the trust were not a unitrust. To the extent net income is insufficient, the unitrust distribution must be paid from net realized short-term capital gains. To the extent net income and net realized short-term capital gains are insufficient, the unitrust distribution must be paid from net realized long-term capital gains. To the extent net income and net realized short-term and long-term capital gains are insufficient, the unitrust distribution must be paid from the principal of the trust. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW).]

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(g). The trustee or, if the trustee declines to do so, a beneficiary may petition the court to do any of the following:

(1). Select a payout percentage other than 4%; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW).]

(2). Provide for a distribution of net income, as would be determined if the trust were not a unitrust, in excess of the unitrust distribution if such distribution is necessary to preserve a tax benefit; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW).]

(3). Average the valuation of the trust's net assets over a period other than 3 years; or [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(4). Reconvert from a unitrust. Upon a reconversion, the power to adjust under section 7-704 is revived. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(h). A conversion to a unitrust does not affect a provision in the terms of the trust directing or authorizing the trustee to distribute principal or authorizing a beneficiary to withdraw a portion or all of the principal.

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(i). A trustee may not convert a trust into a unitrust if any of the following applies:

(1). Payment of the unitrust distribution would change the amount payable to a beneficiary as a fixed annuity or a fixed fraction of the value of the trust assets; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(2). The unitrust distribution would be made from any amount that is permanently set aside for charitable purposes under a will or the terms of the trust unless both income and principal are so set aside; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(3). The trustee's possession or exercise of the power to convert would cause an individual to be treated as the owner of all or part of the trust for income tax purposes, and the individual would not be treated as the owner if the trustee did not possess the power to convert; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(4). The trustee's possession or exercise of the power to convert would cause all or part of the trust assets to be included for estate tax purposes in the estate of an individual who has the power to remove a trustee or appoint a trustee, or both, and the assets would not be included in the estate of the individual if the trustee did not possess the power to convert; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(5). The conversion would result in the disallowance of an estate tax or gift tax marital deduction that would be allowed if the trustee did not have the power to convert; or [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(6). The trustee is a beneficiary of the trust. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(j). If subsection (i), paragraph (3), (4) or (6) applies to a trustee and there is more than one trustee, a cotrustee to whom the provision does not apply may convert the trust unless the exercise of the power by the remaining trustee or trustees is prohibited by the terms of the trust. Terms of the trust requiring that if there are 2 or more trustees serving they must act by agreement or by any majority or percentage consensus may not be construed to prohibit the remaining trustee or trustees from exercising the power to convert. If subsection (i), paragraph (3), (4) or (6) applies to all the trustees, the trustees may petition the court to direct a conversion.

(k). A trustee may release the power conferred by subsection (a) to convert to a unitrust if the trustee is uncertain about whether possessing or exercising the power will cause a result described in subsection (i), paragraph (3), (4) or (5) or if the trustee determines that possessing or exercising the power will or may deprive the trust of a tax benefit or impose a tax burden not described in subsection (i). The release of the power to convert to a unitrust may be permanent or for a specified period, including a period measured by the life of an individual.

§7-706. JUDICIAL REVIEW OF DISCRETIONARY POWERS

(a). A court may not change a fiduciary's decision to exercise or not to exercise a discretionary power conferred by this Part unless it determines that the decision was an abuse of the fiduciary's discretion. A court may not determine that a fiduciary abused the fiduciary's discretion merely because the court would have exercised the discretion in a different manner or would not have exercised the discretion.

(b). If a court determines that a fiduciary has abused the fiduciary's discretion in exercising a discretionary power conferred by this Part, the remedy is to restore the income and remainder beneficiaries to the positions they would have occupied if the fiduciary had not abused the fiduciary's discretion, according to the following rules.

(1). To the extent that the abuse of discretion has resulted in no distribution to a beneficiary or a distribution that is too small, the court shall require the fiduciary to distribute from the trust to the beneficiary an amount that the court determines will restore the beneficiary, in whole or in part, to the beneficiary's appropriate position. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(2). To the extent that the abuse of discretion has resulted in a distribution to a beneficiary that is too large, the court shall restore the beneficiaries or the trust, or both, in whole or in part, to their appropriate positions by requiring the fiduciary to withhold an amount from one or more future distributions to the beneficiary who received the distribution that was too large or requiring that beneficiary or that beneficiary's estate to return some or all of the distribution to the trust, notwithstanding a spendthrift or similar provision. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(3). If the abuse of discretion concerns the power to convert a trust into a unitrust, the court shall require the trustee either to convert the trust to a unitrust or to reconvert from a unitrust. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(4). To the extent that the court is unable, after applying paragraphs (1), (2) and (3), to restore the beneficiaries or the trust, or both, to the positions they would have occupied if the fiduciary had not abused the fiduciary's discretion, the court may require the fiduciary to pay an appropriate amount from the fiduciary's own funds to one or more of the beneficiaries or the trust, or both. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(c). Upon a petition by the fiduciary, a court having jurisdiction over the trust or estate shall determine whether a proposed exercise or nonexercise by the fiduciary of a discretionary power conferred by this Part will result in an abuse of the fiduciary's discretion. If the petition describes the proposed exercise or nonexercise of the power and contains sufficient information to inform the beneficiaries of the reasons for the proposal, the facts upon which the fiduciary relies and an explanation of how the income and remainder beneficiaries will be affected by the proposed exercise or nonexercise of the power, a beneficiary who challenges the proposed exercise or nonexercise has the burden of establishing that it will result in an abuse of discretion.

Subpart 2: DECEDENT'S ESTATE OR TERMINATING INCOME INTEREST

§7-721. DETERMINATION AND DISTRIBUTION OF NET INCOME

After a decedent dies, in the case of an estate, or after an income interest in a trust ends, the following rules apply. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW).]

(a). A fiduciary of an estate or of a terminating income interest shall determine the amount of net income and net principal receipts received from property specifically given to a beneficiary under the rules in subparts 3 to 5 that apply to trustees and the rules in subsection (e). The fiduciary shall distribute the net income and net principal receipts to the beneficiary who is to receive the specific property.

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(b). A fiduciary shall determine the remaining net income of a decedent's estate or a terminating income interest under the rules in subparts 3 to 5 that apply to trustees and by:

(1). Including in net income all income from property used to discharge liabilities; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(2). Paying from income or principal, in the fiduciary's discretion, fees of attorneys, accountants and fiduciaries; court costs and other expenses of administration; and interest on death taxes; but the fiduciary may pay those expenses from income of property passing to a trust for which the fiduciary claims an estate tax marital or charitable deduction only to the extent that the payment of those expenses from income will not cause the reduction or loss of the deduction; and [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(3). Paying from principal all other disbursements made or incurred in connection with the settlement of a decedent's estate or the winding up of a terminating income interest, including debts, funeral expenses, disposition of remains, exempt property and allowances distributable pursuant to Article II, Part 4 and death taxes and related penalties that are apportioned to the estate or terminating income interest by the will, the terms of the trust or applicable law. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(c). A fiduciary shall distribute to a beneficiary who receives a pecuniary amount outright the interest or any other amount provided by the will, the terms of the trust or applicable law from net income determined under subsection (b) or from principal to the extent that net income is insufficient. If a beneficiary is to receive a pecuniary amount outright from a trust after an income interest ends and no interest or other amount is provided for by the terms of the trust or applicable law, the fiduciary shall distribute the interest or other amount to which the beneficiary would be entitled under applicable law if the pecuniary amount were required to be paid under a will under section 3-904.

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(d). A fiduciary shall distribute the net income remaining after distributions required by subsection (c) in the manner described in section 7-722 to all other beneficiaries, including a beneficiary who receives a pecuniary amount in trust, even if the beneficiary holds an unqualified power to withdraw assets from the trust or other presently exercisable general power of appointment over the trust.

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(e). A fiduciary may not reduce principal or income receipts from property described in subsection (a) because of a payment described in section 7-761 or 7-762 to the extent that the will, the terms of the trust or applicable law requires the fiduciary to make the payment from assets other than the property or to the extent that the fiduciary recovers or expects to recover the payment from a 3rd party. The net income and principal receipts from the property are determined by including all of the amounts the fiduciary receives or pays with respect to the property, whether those amounts accrued or became due before, on or after the date of a decedent's death or an income interest's terminating event, and by making a reasonable provision for amounts that the fiduciary believes the estate or terminating income interest may become obligated to pay after the property is distributed.

2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW).

§7-722. DISTRIBUTION TO RESIDUARY AND REMAINDER BENEFICIARIES

(a). Each beneficiary described in section 7-721, subsection (d) is entitled to receive a portion of the net income equal to the beneficiary's fractional interest in undistributed principal assets, using values as of the distribution date. If a fiduciary makes more than one distribution of assets to beneficiaries to whom this section applies, each beneficiary, including one who does not receive part of the distribution, is entitled, as of each distribution date, to the net income the fiduciary has received after the date of death or terminating event or earlier distribution date but has not distributed as of the current distribution date.

(b). In determining a beneficiary's share of net income, the following rules apply.

(1). The beneficiary is entitled to receive a portion of the net income equal to the beneficiary's fractional interest in the undistributed principal assets immediately before the distribution date, including assets that later may be sold to meet principal obligations. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(2). The beneficiary's fractional interest in the undistributed principal assets must be calculated without regard to property specifically given to a beneficiary and property required to pay pecuniary amounts not in trust. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(3). The beneficiary's fractional interest in the undistributed principal assets must be calculated on the basis of the aggregate value of those assets as of the distribution date without reducing the value by any unpaid principal obligation. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(4). The distribution date for purposes of this section may be the date as of which the fiduciary calculates the value of the assets if that date is reasonably near the date on which assets are actually distributed. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(c). If a fiduciary does not distribute all of the collected but undistributed net income to each person as of a distribution date, the fiduciary shall maintain appropriate records showing the interest of each beneficiary in that net income.

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(d). A fiduciary may apply the rules in this section, to the extent that the fiduciary considers it appropriate, to net gain or loss realized after the date of death or terminating event or earlier distribution date from the disposition of a principal asset if this section applies to the income from the asset.

Subpart 3: APPORTIONMENT AT BEGINNING AND END OF INCOME INTEREST

§7-731. WHEN RIGHT TO INCOME BEGINS AND ENDS

(a). An income beneficiary is entitled to net income from the date on which the income interest begins. An income interest begins on the date specified in the terms of the trust or, if no date is specified, on the date an asset becomes subject to a trust or successive income interest.

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(b). An asset becomes subject to a trust:

(1). On the date it is transferred to the trust in the case of an asset that is transferred to a trust during the transferor's life; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(2). On the date of a testator's death in the case of an asset that becomes subject to a trust by reason of a will, even if there is an intervening period of administration of the testator's estate; or [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(3). On the date of an individual's death in the case of an asset that is transferred to a fiduciary by a 3rd party because of the individual's death. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(c). An asset becomes subject to a successive income interest on the day after the preceding income interest ends, as determined under subsection (d), even if there is an intervening period of administration to wind up the preceding income interest.

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(d). An income interest ends on the day before an income beneficiary dies or another terminating event occurs or on the last day of a period during which there is no beneficiary to whom a trustee may distribute income.

2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW).

§7-732. APPORTIONMENT OF RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS WHEN DECEDENT DIES OR INCOME INTEREST BEGINS

(a). A trustee shall allocate an income receipt or disbursement other than one to which section 7-721, subsection (a) applies to principal if its due date occurs before a decedent dies in the case of an estate or before an income interest begins in the case of a trust or successive income interest.

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(b). A trustee shall allocate an income receipt or disbursement to income if its due date occurs on or after the date on which a decedent dies or an income interest begins and it is a periodic due date. An income receipt or disbursement must be treated as accruing from day to day if its due date is not periodic or it has no due date. The portion of the receipt or disbursement accruing before the date on which a decedent dies or an income interest begins must be allocated to principal and the balance must be allocated to income.

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(c). An item of income or an obligation is due on the date the payor is required to make a payment. If a payment date is not stated, there is no due date for the purposes of this Part. Distributions to shareholders or other owners from an entity to which section 7-741 applies are deemed to be due on the date fixed by the entity for determining who is entitled to receive the distribution or, if no date is fixed, on the declaration date for the distribution. A due date is periodic for receipts or disbursements that must be paid at regular intervals under a lease or an obligation to pay interest or if an entity customarily makes distributions at regular intervals.

2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .

§7-733. APPORTIONMENT WHEN INCOME INTEREST ENDS

(a). In this section, "undistributed income" means net income received before the date on which an income interest ends. The term does not include an item of income or expense that is due or accrued or net income that has been added or is required to be added to principal under the terms of the trust.

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(b). When a mandatory income interest ends, the trustee shall pay to a mandatory income beneficiary who survives that date, or the estate of a deceased mandatory income beneficiary whose death causes the interest to end, the beneficiary's share of the undistributed income that is not disposed of under the terms of the trust unless the beneficiary has an unqualified power to revoke more than 5% of the trust immediately before the income interest ends. In the latter case, the undistributed income from the portion of the trust that may be revoked must be added to principal.

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(c). When a trustee's obligation to pay a fixed annuity or a fixed fraction of the value of the trust's assets ends, the trustee shall prorate the final payment to the extent required by applicable law to accomplish a purpose of the trust or its settlor relating to income, gift, estate or other tax requirements.

(3). Money received in total or partial liquidation of the entity; and [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(4). Money received from an entity that is a regulated investment company or a real estate investment trust if the money distributed is a capital gain dividend for federal income tax purposes. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(d). Money is received in partial liquidation:

(1). To the extent that the entity, at or near the time of a distribution, indicates that it is a distribution in partial liquidation; or [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(2). If the total amount of money and property received in a distribution or series of related distributions is greater than 20% of the entity's gross assets, as shown by the entity's year-end financial statements immediately preceding the initial receipt. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(f). A trustee may rely upon a statement made by an entity about the source or character of a distribution if the statement is made at or near the time of distribution by the entity's board of directors or other person or group of persons authorized to exercise powers to pay money or transfer property comparable to those of a corporation's board of directors.

A trustee shall allocate to income an amount received as a distribution of income from a trust or an estate in which the trust has an interest other than a purchased interest, and shall allocate to principal an amount received as a distribution of principal from such a trust or estate. §7-743. BUSINESS AND OTHER ACTIVITIES CONDUCTED BY TRUSTEE

(a). If a trustee who conducts a business or other activity determines that it is in the best interest of all the beneficiaries to account separately for the business or activity instead of accounting for it as part of the trust's general accounting records, the trustee may maintain separate accounting records for its transactions, whether or not its assets are segregated from other trust assets.

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(b). A trustee who accounts separately for a business or other activity may determine the extent to which its net cash receipts must be retained for working capital, the acquisition or replacement of fixed assets, and other reasonably foreseeable needs of the business or activity, and the extent to which the remaining net cash receipts are accounted for as principal or income in the trust's general accounting records. If a trustee sells assets of the business or other activity, other than in the ordinary course of the business or activity, the trustee shall account for the net amount received as principal in the trust's general accounting records to the extent the trustee determines that the amount received is no longer required in the conduct of the business.

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(c). Activities for which a trustee may maintain separate accounting records include:

- (1). Retail, manufacturing, service and other traditional business activities; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

An amount received as a refundable deposit, including a security deposit or a deposit that is to be applied as rent for future periods, must be added to principal and held subject to the terms of the lease and is not available for distribution to a beneficiary until the trustee's contractual obligations have been satisfied with respect to that amount. (b). A trustee shall allocate to principal an amount received from the sale, redemption or other disposition of an obligation to pay money to the trustee more than one year after it is purchased or acquired by the trustee, including an obligation whose purchase price or value when it is acquired is less than its value at maturity. If the obligation matures within one year after it is purchased or acquired by the trustee, an amount received in excess of its purchase price or its value when acquired by the trust must be allocated to income.

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

The trustee shall allocate dividends on an insurance policy to income if the premiums on the policy are paid from income, and to principal if the premiums are paid from principal.

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(b). A trustee shall allocate to income proceeds of a contract that insures the trustee against loss of occupancy or other use by an income beneficiary, loss of income or, subject to section 7-743, loss of profits from a business.

§7-748. INSUBSTANTIAL ALLOCATIONS NOT REQUIRED

If a trustee determines that an allocation between principal and income required by section 7-749, 7-750, 7-751, 7-752 or 7-755 is insubstantial, the trustee may allocate the entire amount to principal unless one of the circumstances described in section 7-704, subsection (c) applies to the allocation. This power may be exercised by a cotrustee in the circumstances described in section 7-704, subsection (d) and may be released for the reasons and in the manner described in section 7-704, subsection (e). An allocation is presumed to be insubstantial if: [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(a). The amount of the allocation would increase or decrease net income in an accounting period, as determined before the allocation, by less than 10%; or

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(b). The value of the asset producing the receipt for which the allocation would be made is less than 10% of the total value of the trust's assets at the beginning of the accounting period.

2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .

§7-749. DEFERRED COMPENSATION, ANNUITIES AND SIMILAR PAYMENTS

(a). In this section:

(1). "Payment" means a payment that a trustee may receive over a fixed number of years or during the life of one or more individuals because of services rendered or property transferred to the payor in exchange for future payments. The term includes a payment made in money or property from the payor's general assets or from a separate fund created by the payor. For the purposes of subsections (d), (d-1), (d-2) and (d-3), "payment" also includes any payment from any separate fund, regardless of the reason for the payment; and [2011, c. 256, §1 (NEW); 2011, c. 256, §4 (AFF) .]

(2). "Separate fund" includes a private or commercial annuity, an individual retirement account and a pension, profit-sharing, stock-bonus or stock-ownership plan. [2011, c. 256, §1 (NEW); 2011, c. 256, §4 (AFF) .]

[2011, c. 256, §1 (AMD); 2011, c. 256, §4 (AFF) .]

(b). To the extent that a payment is characterized as interest, a dividend or a payment made in lieu of interest or a dividend, a trustee shall allocate the payment to income. The trustee shall allocate to principal the balance of the payment and any other payment received in the same accounting period that is not characterized as interest, a dividend or an equivalent payment.

[2011, c. 256, §1 (AMD); 2011, c. 256, §4 (AFF) .]

(c). If no part of a payment is characterized as interest, a dividend or an equivalent payment, and all or part of the payment is required to be made, a trustee shall allocate to income 10% of the part that is required to be made during the accounting period and the balance to principal. If no part of a payment is required to be made or the payment received is the entire amount to which the trustee is entitled, the trustee shall allocate the entire payment to principal. For purposes of this subsection, a payment is not "required to be made" to the extent that it is made because the trustee exercises a right of withdrawal.

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(d). Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d-1), subsections (d-2) and (d-3) apply and subsections (b) and (c) do not apply in determining the allocation of a payment made from a separate fund to a trust:

(1). That qualifies for the marital deduction under the federal Internal Revenue Code, 26 United States Code, Section 2056(b)(7) (2010), as amended, and for which either such an election has been made for federal purposes or for which an election under the pertinent provisions of the laws of the State to qualify as Maine qualified terminable interest property has been made; or [2011, c. 256, §1 (NEW); 2011, c. 256, §4 (AFF).]

(2). That qualifies for the marital deduction under the federal Internal Revenue Code, 26 United States Code, Section 2056(b)(5) (2010), as amended. [2011, c. 256, §1 (NEW); 2011, c. 256, §4 (AFF).]

[2011, c. 256, §1 (AMD); 2011, c. 256, §4 (AFF) .]

(d-1). Subsections (d), (d-2) and (d-3) do not apply if and to the extent that the series of payments would, without the application of subsection (d), qualify for the marital deduction under the federal Internal Revenue Code, 26 United States Code, Section 2056(b)(7)(C) (2010), as amended.

[2011, c. 256, §1 (NEW); 2011, c. 256, §4 (AFF) .]

(d-2). A trustee shall determine the internal income of each separate fund for the accounting period as if the separate fund were a trust subject to this Part. Upon request of the surviving spouse, the trustee shall demand that the person administering the separate fund distribute the internal income to the trust. The trustee shall allocate a payment from the separate fund to income to the extent of the internal income of the separate fund and distribute that amount to the surviving spouse. The trustee shall allocate the balance of the payment to principal. Upon request of the surviving spouse, the trustee shall allocate principal to income to the extent the internal income of the separate fund exceeds payments made from the separate fund to the trust during the accounting period.

(d-3). If a trustee cannot determine the internal income of a separate fund but can determine the value of the separate fund, the internal income of the separate fund is deemed to equal 4% of the fund's value, according to the most recent statement of value preceding the beginning of the accounting period. If the trustee can determine neither the internal income of the separate fund nor the fund's value, the internal income of the fund is deemed to equal the product of the interest rate and the present value of the expected future payments, as determined under the federal Internal Revenue Code, 26 United States Code, Section 7520 (2010), as amended, for the month preceding the accounting period for which the computation is made.

(e). This section does not apply to a payment to which section 7-750 applies.

The term includes a leasehold, patent, copyright, royalty right and right to receive payments during a period of more than one year under an arrangement that does not provide for the payment of interest on the unpaid balance. The term does not include a payment subject to section 7-749, resources subject to section 7-751, timber subject to section 7-752, an activity subject to section 7-754, an asset subject to section 7-755, or any asset for which the trustee establishes a reserve for depreciation under section 7-763.

§7-751. MINERALS, WATER AND OTHER NATURAL RESOURCES

(a). To the extent that a trustee accounts for receipts from an interest in minerals or other natural resources pursuant to this section, the trustee shall allocate them as follows.

(2). If received from a production payment, a receipt must be allocated to income if and to the extent that the agreement creating the production payment provides a factor for interest or its equivalent. The balance must be allocated to principal. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(3). If an amount received as a royalty, shut-in-well payment, take-or-pay payment, bonus or delay rental is more than nominal, 90% must be allocated to principal and the balance to income. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(4). If an amount is received from a working interest or any other interest not provided for in paragraph (1), (2) or (3), 90% of the net amount received must be allocated to principal and the balance to income. [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(b). An amount received on account of an interest in water that is renewable must be allocated to income. If the water is not renewable, 90% of the amount must be allocated to principal and the balance to income.

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(c). This Part applies whether or not a decedent or donor was extracting minerals, water or other natural resources before the interest became subject to the trust.

[2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(d). If a trust owns an interest in minerals, water or other natural resources on January 1, 2002, the trustee may allocate receipts from the interest as provided in this Part or in the manner used by the trustee before January 1, 2002. (1). To income to the extent the net receipts do not exceed the product of (i) mean annual growth multiplied by the number of years since the last timber sale, or, if more recent, the date the timber became a part of the trust, multiplied by (ii) the stumpage rates obtained, after netting against the stumpage rates obtained the expenses associated with the conduct of the sale; [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(2). To principal to the extent that the proceeds received exceed the amount determined in paragraph (1); [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

(3). To or between income and principal if the net receipts are from the lease of timberland or from a contract to cut timber from land owned by a trust, by determining the amount of timber removed from the land under the lease or contract and applying the rules in paragraphs (1) and (2); or [2001, c. 544, §2 (NEW) .]

§7-753. PROPERTY NOT PRODUCTIVE OF INCOME

(a). If a marital deduction is allowed for all or part of a trust whose assets consist substantially of property that does not provide the spouse with sufficient income from or use of the trust assets, and if the amounts that the trustee transfers from principal to income under section 7-704 and distributes to the spouse from principal pursuant to the terms of the trust are insufficient to provide the spouse with the beneficial enjoyment required to obtain the marital deduction, the spouse may require the trustee to make property productive of income, convert property within a reasonable time or exercise the power conferred by section 7-704, subsection (a). The trustee may decide which action or combination of actions to take.

The term does not include an asset to which section 7-741 or 7-749 applies.

(b). If the amount of an estate tax marital deduction or charitable contribution deduction is reduced because a fiduciary deducts an amount paid from principal for income tax purposes instead of deducting it for estate tax purposes, and as a result estate taxes paid from principal are increased and income taxes paid by an estate, trust or beneficiary are decreased, each estate, trust or beneficiary that benefits from the decrease in income tax shall reimburse the principal from which the increase in estate tax is paid. The total reimbursement must equal the increase in the estate tax to the extent that the principal used to pay the increase would have qualified for a marital deduction or charitable contribution deduction but for the payment.

The proportionate share of the reimbursement for each estate, trust or beneficiary whose income taxes are reduced must be the same as its proportionate share of the total decrease in income tax. An estate or trust shall reimburse principal from income.
